Adam,

MoneyLion has a continuing obligation to produce relevant documents and information about its pending RWI claim. If MoneyLion will not produce the requested information, it should be prepared to live with that decision.

All the best,

Nathaniel Ament-Stone

EXTERNAL EMAIL – EXERCISE CAUTION

Nathaniel,

As you know, fact discovery ended months ago on August 16. If you had concerns about MoneyLion's productions in response to Request 3, they should have been raised before August 16 and you did not do so. To the extent you are seeking documents created after August 16, Plaintiffs' First Set of Requests for Production of Documents does not specifically request such materials and so there is no pending request for their production. And, in any event, fact discovery is now closed.

Adam

Subject: Frommer et al. v. MoneyLion: Communications with Dual

Counsel:

On Dec. 1, 2023, plaintiffs interposed a continuing request for production of “[a]ll documents and communications relating to Plaintiffs’ representations and warranties in connection with the Acquisition including . . . communications with any insurer.” Plaintiffs received two letters responsive to this request from Dual Commercial in June 2024, and received no responsive documents or communications from MoneyLion. Plaintiffs renew the request and request, for the avoidance of doubt, that all communications with Dual Commercial concerning the Sellers’ reps and warranties (including MoneyLion’s allegations in this case regarding MIPA Section 3.06, Schedule A, and Schedule B) through today’s date be produced by November 22, and that any subsequent communications (i.e., those sent or received after today’s date) be produced to plaintiffs on a continual basis within 24 hours of their delivery to or by MoneyLion.

All the best,

Nathaniel Ament-Stone
